

POLICY

Frontenac Youth Services is committed to developing policies, practices and procedures that provide accessible services to all our clients. Services will be provided to clients with disabilities in a manner that promotes and respects dignity, independence, integration and equal opportunity.

PURPOSE

The Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005 (AODA) is Provincial Legislation with the purpose of developing, implementing and enforcing accessibility standards in order to achieve accessibility for persons with disabilities with respect to goods, services, facilities, accommodation, employment, buildings, structures and premises on or before January 1, 2025.

This policy is in accordance with the Accessibility Standards for Customer Service Ontario Regulation 429.7 and address the following:

- The provision of resources and services to persons with disabilities;
- The use of assistive devices by persons with disabilities;
- The use of service animals by persons with disabilities;
- The use of support persons by persons with disabilities;
- Notice of temporary disruptions in services and facilities;
- Training;
- Customer Feedback regarding the provision of goods and services to persons with disabilities;
- Notice of availability and format of documents and meetings.

This policy applies to all persons who deal with members of the public or other third parties on behalf of Frontenac Youth Services, whether the person is an employee, a Board member, an agent, a volunteer, or a student on placement and all persons who represent Frontenac Youth Services.

Support Person is an individual hired or chosen by a person with a disability to provide services or assistance with communication, mobility, personal care, medical needs or with access to goods or services.

PROCEDURES

1. Providing Resources and Services to People with Disabilities

Frontenac Youth Services is committed to excellence in serving all customers including people with disabilities and we will carry out our functions and responsibilities to ensure that our policies, practices and procedures are consistent with the following principles:

- a) Frontenac Youth Services' resources and services are provided in a manner that respects the dignity and independence of persons with disabilities;
- b) The provision of Frontenac Youth Services' resources and services to persons with disabilities are integrated with those provided to persons who do not have disabilities unless an alternative measure is necessary to enable a person with a disability to obtain, use or benefit from Frontenac's goods or services and
- c) Persons with disabilities are given an opportunity equal to that of persons without disabilities to obtain, use or benefit from Frontenac's goods and services.

2. Communication

- a) Frontenac Youth Services will communicate with people with disabilities in a manner that will take into account their disability;
- b) Frontenac Youth Services staff will be trained on how to interact and communicate with clients with various types of disabilities;
- c) Clients with disabilities will be offered alternative communications formats that will meet the needs of the client;
- d) Documents will be provided to clients in an alternative format that will meet the needs of the client in a timely fashion and in accordance with Frontenac's policy manual.

3. Use of Service Animals, Support Persons and Assistive Devices

a) Service Animals

Frontenac Youth Services is committed to welcoming people with disabilities who are accompanied by a service animal, that is not in contravention of any law (i.e. The Municipal Code By-Law) on the parts of our premises that are open to the public and other locations operated by Frontenac Youth Services. If a service animal is excluded by law, Frontenac will ensure that alternate means are available to enable the person with a disability to obtain, use or benefit from Frontenac's resources and services.

b) Support Persons

Frontenac Youth Services is committed to welcoming people with disabilities who are accompanied by a support person. Any person with a disability who is accompanied by a support person will be allowed to enter Frontenac Youth Services' premises with his or her support person.

Frontenac may require a person with a disability to be accompanied by a support person when receiving materials or services or participating in a program offered by Frontenac in situations where it is necessary to protect the health and safety of the person with a disability or the health and safety of others in the premises (please see Service Animals, Support Person and Assistive Devices procedure).

c) Assistive Devices

A person with a disability may provide their own assistive device for the purpose of obtaining, using and benefiting from Frontenac Youth Services' materials and services. Exceptions may occur in situations where Frontenac has determined that the assistance device may pose a risk to the health and safety of a person with a disability or the health and safety of others on the premises. In these situations, Frontenac may offer a person with a disability other reasonable measures to assist him or her in obtaining, using and benefiting from Frontenac's materials and services, where Frontenac has such other measures available.

It should be noted that it is the responsibility of the person with a disability to ensure that his or her assistive device is operated in a safe and controlled manner at all times.

Frontenac Youth Services will also ensure that staff are trained to use the following assistive devices for clients with disabilities; wheelchair, electronic communication devices, interpretive devices, internet.

4. Notice of Temporary Disruptions

Frontenac Youth Services is aware that the operation of its services and facilities is important to its clients. However, temporary disruptions in Frontenac's services and facilities may occur due to reasons that may or may not be within Frontenac's control.

Frontenac Youth Services will provide clients with notice in the event of a planned disruption in the facilities or services usually used by people with disabilities. In the event of an unplanned disruption of its facilities and services, Frontenac will make a reasonable effort to provide notice as soon as possible. In both cases, this notice will include information about the reason for the disruption, its anticipated duration and a description of alternative facilities or services, if available.

When temporary disruptions occur to Frontenac's services or facilities, Frontenac will provide notice by posting the information in visible places and on Frontenac's website www.frontenacyouthservices.org or by any other method that may be reasonable under the circumstances.

5. Staff Training on Customer Service

Frontenac Youth Services will provide customer service training in accordance with Ontario Regulation 429.07 to all employees, volunteers and others who deal with the public or other third parties on behalf of Frontenac Youth Services, and all those who are involved in the development and approvals of customer service policies, practices and procedures.

The training will be provided as soon as practicable upon an individual being assigned the applicable duties.
